Everyone Has Seen a Comic or a Magic Show

You can get all the details perfect, but if your speakers are boring or if your entertainment is mediocre, the entire event feels like a flop. The true secret to turning any event into a smash hit is finding the right entertainment for your audience.

Everyone has seen a magic act or been to a club and watched a comedian. Why not give the audience something unique and exciting?

The problem with traditional entertainment options is that they are all passive. The audience just watches. But, a mentalist is different. A mentalist uses fun-focused audience participation. Everyone has a great time because everyone is part of the show.

Booking a mentalist also gives you a logistical advantage. There are no large props, intense setup, and complicated technical requirements. A mentalist can work in almost any venue and still put on a mind-blowing show.

What Does a Mentalist Do?

A mentalist is part mind reader, part comedian, and part master communicator. Brent Webb is “The Master Mind”. He does so much more than just read your thoughts. He gets inside your mind. He sees with your eyes, hears with your ears, and thinks with YOUR mind.
